ROLE TITLE

Course Development volunteer

REQUIREMENTS & RESPONSIBILITIES

- Interested in supporting T&E to develop a comprehensive collection/repository of a variety of resource materials
- Able to patiently dedicate time regularly each week to listen to audio/video recordings, create transcript/notes for each slide and capture Q&A (from previously run courses)
- Creative and willing to develop new slides (where required) related to the course content
- Able to review quality of slides and suitability of course content as well as key messages for the particular level the course is aimed at
- Attention to detail and focused on quality
- Good communication, planning, organisation skills
- Familiar and comfortable working with Microsoft Word and PowerPoint
- Templates will be shared and guidance provided

Great opportunity for dedicated volunteers who are keen to immerse themselves in philosophy whilst shaping the course content to be practical, relevant and universally relatable to all. Amazing service for anyone who enjoys learning, researching a specific topic and developing a new course which is informative, interesting, infuses a sense of purpose.

T&E is all about offering wisdom in a way that facilitates devotional awakening in the students spiritual journey.
